Want to Make a Difference?

February being the shortest month of the year. We should be thankful it is in the middle of winter. With two days closer to spring.

We can have the chance the ground hog will not see his shadow on the second.

Then there is Valentine's Day, when you can send sweet note to a Prime Timer. It can just make his day.

This month also starts our journey to Easter. Thinking of spring already.

Just because February is a dull cold month do not stay at home. Join us at our TAPT events.

Tulsa will on let you be a sleeping bear with lots of events. Music, concerts, movies, lectures, and at least a meal out. Have a great day John Madigan

The Fist of Winter

The fist of winter grips the land
In a shroud of white at birth,
It's here that Nature takes control
With drifts upon the earth.
A haughty wind shear blows the snow,
It causes many shifts;
In the calm, the moonlight casts
Ermine shadows on the drifts.
Pine tree boughs hold treasures, white,
It's satin smooth upon;
At sunrise, when night's shadows fall,
It sparkles in the dawn.
The fist of Winter night blows hard
And covers seasoned greens,
But in exchange, it offers up,
Some pastoral Winter scenes.
Nancy Watson Dodrill

The Master's Plan

It's wintertime outside my door,
There's ice and snow in all grandeur,
The trees all have a lot of class,
They all look made of crystal glass.

It's all the Lord's own handiwork,
He never for a moment shirks,
He gives the Winter's icy breeze
And paints the landscape as he pleases.

It's all within the Master's plan
To paint the hills and ice the land;
Soon springtime will arrive in green
And paint the earth a different scene.
